

CALVARY EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL

SIOUX FALLS, SOUTH DAKOTA

DEAN OF THE CATHEDRAL

Search Timing: Commencing May 2008 and continuing until the position is filled.

Calvary Cathedral, a celebratory community of grace, is seeking a Dean. The successful candidate will have a proven record of the ability to express genuine love and concern for others, excellent preaching and liturgy, and be fully supportive of the Episcopal Church in the midst of challenges and changes.

The Dean will be assisted by a full-time ministry assistant, four deacons, an office administrator and other staff. The Dean will work closely with the Diocesan Bishop and offices which are located at the Cathedral. The Diocese of South Dakota is unique within the Episcopal Church in that it includes many Dakota, Lakota or Nakota (Sioux) Indian people. Calvary Episcopal includes a small Native-American worship community. The Sioux Falls Metropolitan Statistical Area is a thriving community.
